So the team has a draft they'll post today, and I'll take a look at it tomorrow. I think the only hold-up may be getting signed documents from EFED, but in their absence we'll just reference their e-mails to get it out the door. I think I'll stop reading my e-mails while I'm "off" so I have plausible deniability about commitments being made. 😊

OK. That's news to me – the date we gave them for a draft was 12/31. But I'll see what we can do.
